

Chester County Activities for Bigs and Littles

Brandywine Battlefield

This Revolutionary War site of the Battle of Brandywine features a museum as well as Washington's command headquarters.

<http://www.ushistory.org/brandywine/>

The Colonial Theatre

This theatre in Phoenixville, PA has Saturday matinees for kids and classic films on Sundays.

<http://www.thecolonialtheatre.com/index2.html>

The Covered Bridges of Chester County

Chester may not have the most bridges of any county in the U.S., but they are certainly the most diverse and historic.

<http://william-king.www.drexel.edu/top/bridge/CBChes.html>

The Devon Horse Show

Every year around Memorial Day, beautiful horses compete in equestrian events at this famous horse show.

<http://www.thedevonhorseshow.org/>

Holland Art House

This gallery is committed to displaying the artists of Holland and aims to add value to the viewer's life through groundbreaking exhibits and retrospectives.

www.hollandarthouse.com

Longwood Gardens

The world's premier horticultural showplace celebrated its 100th anniversary in 2006. Admire the Italian Water Garden and other magnificent displays.

<http://www.longwoodgardens.org/>

Picnic Park

Visit this 26-acre picnic park and campground located 20 minutes west of West Chester.

<http://www.picnicpa.com/>

Valley Forge

The legendary historical site where Washington and his troops were encamped for a harsh winter that ultimately took the life of one in ten soldiers.

<http://www.nps.gov/vafo/>