WHAT: October Match Activity #2
Mutter Museum Tour

It's a spooky time of year to explore oddities... like those on display at the Mutter Museum! The Museum, part of The College of Physicians of Philadelphia, was founded to educate future doctors about human medical anomalies. The weak of heart and stomach should be cautious – skeletons and more are displayed for all to learn from! Before RSVPing, please learn more about the Museum here – this activity may not be appropriate for children under 12 years old.

WHO: You and your Little Brother or Sister

WHEN: Saturday October 24, 2009
10:15 a.m. – please arrive promptly so we can begin the tour on time

WHERE: 19 South 22nd St.
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Activities Cancellation Policy - Due to the time, effort and money that we invest to make each activity special, we ask that you please review the following cancellation guidelines:

- If you cannot attend an event after RSVP'ing "yes," please cancel at least 24 hours in advance of the event.
- If you RSVP "yes" for an activity and do not attend - without proper notification ("no shows") - you will be moved to the bottom of the list for future events.
- Additional cancellation guidelines may be applied on an event-by-event basis.

We appreciate your understanding as we try to use our resources most efficiently. We look forward to sharing some great moments with you and your Little. Thank you in advance for your cooperation!

BIG thanks for being a Big!
